SOCIAL NOTES

Mrs. William Whittemore Low entertained most delightfully at a tea Friday afternoon, for her mother, Mrs. Parmelee. The house was fragrant with beautiful flowers, masses of goldenshower were everywhere, and the dining table was especially beautiful with a large vase of exquisite la France roses. Mrs. Winslow, in an attractive lingerie frock, embroidered with blue ribbons, poured tea, while Mrs. Moses served ices. Mrs. Moses' gown of broad pink silk, trimmed with beautiful lace, was especially attractive and becoming. Mrs. Low was charming in a lovely cream lace gown, made Directoire with Dresden panels and ribbons. Her mother was becomingly dressed in a handsome black lace gown. The ladies of the Marine Corps assisted in looking after the welfare of the guests. Those present were: Mrs. Frear, Mrs. McGrew, Mrs. Dillingham, Mrs. Schaefer, Mrs. Focke, Mrs. Tenney Peck, Mrs. Gertrude Wilder, Mrs. Dunning, Mrs. Rees, Mrs. Charlie Wilder, Mrs. Arthur Berg, Mrs. Archibald A. Young, Mrs. George Davies, Miss Birney, Mrs. Church, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. King, Mrs. Soper, Miss Soper, Mrs. Oat, Mrs. Usbourne, Mrs. A. J. Campbell, Mrs. William Whitney, Mrs. George Meade and three guests. Mrs. C. W. Case Deering, Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Ernest Waterhouse, Mrs. Dougherty, Mrs. McStocker, Miss Schaefer, and others.

Mrs. Francis Gay of Kanae, issued invitations to a Garden Party at the home of Judge Hart at Waikiki, Thursday afternoon, in honor of her sister, Mrs. Charles Elston. Owing to the inclement weather the guests were entertained in the house and the idea of a lawn party was abandoned. The many beautiful paintings of Hawaiian scenes on this and the other islands in Judge Hart's drawing room, as well as an excellent portrait of the hostess, Mrs. Gay, were noted and admired by the guests. The gay scene in the drawing room had a most attractive background in a lovely view of the shimmering blue sea, at the rear, glimpses of which delighted the eye, as viewed through a mass of palm leaves and hanging baskets arranged on the makai lapa. Refreshments were served. Mrs. Ernest Ross pouring coffee at a serving table which was attractively set out. The Hawaiian singing boys added to the entertainment of the guests, among whom were noticed: Governor and Mrs. Frear and their three guests (the Misses Morin, Harding and Dewey), Captain and Mrs. Rees, Captain and Mrs. Mosby, Mrs. McGrew, Mr. and Mrs. L. Tenney-Peck, Mrs. Gentry, Mr. Arthur Mackintosh, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lewis, Jr., Mrs. Montague Cooke, Miss Ada Rhodes, Mrs. George Davies, Mrs. Albert Waterhouse, the Misses Kopke, Mrs. Harry von Holt, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wilder, Mrs. Mott-Smith, Mrs. Chas. Weight, Miss Paty and Mrs. Fax Bishop.

Ex-Gov. Cleghorn entertained at luncheon Saturday the 3rd at "Aina-hau" for Captain Gleaves of the cruiser St. Louis. The beautiful home of former Governor Cleghorn is always attractive, but the grounds are especially beautiful just now when so many blossoms are shedding their fragrance everywhere. A delightful time was enjoyed by the following guests: Captain Gleaves, Mr. Ronald Paton, Mr. C. W. Case Deering, Col. Hawes and Capt. Moses.

Mrs. Green, wife of Dr. Green, the eminent lecturer of Chicago, who has been confined to the hospital since her serious automobile accident on the Hackfield wharf, joined her husband at the Young Hotel during last week. Dr. and Mrs. Green resumed their journey homeward by the Tenyo Maru on Sunday.

Miss Irene Fisher gave a dainty luncheon on Thursday for the younger set of girls, several of whom have only recently returned to Honolulu. Those present were the Misses Alice Cook, Harriet Hatch, Beatrice Castle, Vera Damon, Alice Hedeman, Dorothy Wooster and Nora Sturgeon.

The marriage of Miss Waterhouse, daughter of Mrs. E. B. Waterhouse, to Mr. Charles Wilcox of Kanae, was very quietly celebrated at the Waterhouse residence on Wyllie street on Monday evening. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and the wedding was one of the prettiest of the season. The attractive bride was gowning in a lovely white satin dress. She was attended by her sister, Miss Eleanor Waterhouse, as bridesmaid. Four pretty little flower girls, and three little pages, nieces and nephews of the bride, made a charming addition to the bridal party. After the ceremony a small reception was held for the immediate relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox are enjoying a delightful honeymoon on the slopes of Tantalus.

Mrs. Clifford Kimball and Mrs. R. G. E. Forster, wife of the British Consul, left in the Kinau Tuesday for a visit to Mrs. Kimball's sister, Mrs. Charles Rice, on Kauai. Mrs. Kimball will spend a month on the Garden Isle. Mrs. Forster returning to Honolulu in a fortnight.

Governor and Mrs. Frear have been entertaining as their house guests during the week the Misses Morin, Harding and Dewey, three young ladies from Chicago, who accompanied Mrs. George H. Meade to the islands for a summer's visit.

An appreciative audience, representative of Honolulu society, gathered in the ball room of the Alexander Young Hotel Thursday evening to hear Mr. Marshall Darrach's rendition of "The Merchant of Venice."

On Monday evening Consul and Mrs. Foster entertained at the British Consulate on King street. The guests were Madame Frigue, Mrs. Clifford Kimball, Miss. Gras, ex-Gov. Cleghorn, and Mr. David Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Tenney-Peck entertained for Professor and Mrs. Meade and their guests, the Misses Marlin, Harding and Dewey, at a delightful picnic last Monday, at the Peninsula.

Mrs. Parmelee, of New Haven, Conn., arrived in town on the Manaburu, to visit her daughter, Mrs. William W. Low, wife of Captain Low of the Marine Corps.

Brigadier General Murray, with his wife and two daughters, arrived in the Mongolia from the Philippines and are guests at the Moana Hotel.

Judge and Mrs. Sidney Ballou entertained at dinner on Monday evening for Miss Carpenter, Mr. W. G. Irwin and Mr. Lansing Wizer.

Miss Alice Hedeman gave an attractive afternoon tea Friday for the younger set, of whom there were thirty-six girls present.

Miss Elsa Schaefer returned from the Orient on Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Castle and Miss Beatrice.

Mr. and Mrs. Faxon Bishop have returned from Waikiki to their Nuuanu Valley residence.

Ex-Governor George R. Carter gave a pot supper Friday in honor of Dr. Green of Chicago.

Mrs. Green, wife of Dr. Green, the eminent lecturer of Chicago, who has been confined to the hospital since her serious automobile accident on the Hackfield wharf, joined her husband at the Young Hotel during last week. Dr. and Mrs. Green resumed their journey homeward by the Tenyo Maru on Sunday.

HIGH CHIEFESS PASSES AWAY

Maria Beckley Kahea Of Royal Hawaiian Family No More

Unable to survive the shock of operation for cancer of the stomach, Mrs. Maria Beckley Kahea, a descendant of Hawaiian nobility, died at the Sanatorium last evening, her case proving more serious than was anticipated. Mrs. Kahea was a survivor of a line of royal ancestors, connected with the history of the Kamehameha dynasty and was the daughter of High Chiefess Kahalo.

The deceased was a sister of Hon. Fred K. Beckley, who was the monarchial governor of the island of Kauai under King Kalakaua at the time of his death. His son is Fred W. Beckley, one time speaker of the House of Representatives and at present Hawaiian interpreter in the Circuit Court. Another brother is George C. Beckley, capitalist and for years the purser of the inter-island steamer Kinau. Mrs. Kahea has for several years been the keeper of the Royal Mausoleum and grounds in Nuuanu valley. The remains of many of the Kamehameha dynasty repose there in a tomb, and those of the Kalakaua dynasty in the imposing mausoleum structure. Her name, Kahanawale, signifies "carrying the heavenly one," because of the fact that her grandfather carried Kamehameha's bones to their secret resting place. She was one of the ladies of Queen Kapiolani's court.

Surviving Mrs. Kahea, who was about sixty-four years of age, are her husband and five living children, who include Mrs. Carl Maertens and Leona Beckley, and her brother, George C. Beckley.

The funeral will take place at 4 o'clock this afternoon from the Roman Catholic cathedral, the interment to be in the Nuuanu cemetery.

DOWN TO NATURE.

The management of the Park Theater, Fort below Beretania avenue, has gone down to nature and secured one of the most sensational pictures ever shown here and without a trace of nature faking. The feature picture will show Jack Abernathy and ex-Bandit Jennings, catching wolves alive and tying them. Old Iolo is one of the fiercest of animals on the plains and to take him by thrusting a hand into the mouth of the animal and pinning him so he cannot bite is an extraordinary feat. So perfect is the act that when Roosevelt was President he had Abernathy call at the White House and give an exhibition. So pleased was he with what he saw that the treat was given the following night with ladies of the cabinet present. Abernathy is a United States marshal in Oklahoma and Jennings, who once amazed himself holding up trains, is a deputy, both of the men having been appointed by Roosevelt. There will be a number of other good views tonight and a fine musical program. The Melodrama sisters will sing "Gee, what a Lonesome Town."

PIG WITH EYE DISEASE CAUGHT.

A drop of witness upon a virtuously dry Sabbath day was the cause of Sam Homano running afoul of eagle-eyed Liquor Inspector Fennell yesterday. Sam, who furthermore pays no license, habitually runs a pig with bad eyesight in the Asylum district and saw no reason for closing up on Sunday more than any other day. Fennell's inspector, therefore, was able to purchase about three jags, bottled, and was standing one and holding the other two under his arm when Fennell showed up on the spot and investigated.

The Best
Cough Drops
Are Drops of Ayer's
Cherry Pectoral.

Sixty years ago physicians first used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and ever since then it has been the standard cough remedy all over the world. Thousands of families, in Europe, Asia, Africa, and America, keep a bottle of it in the house ready for an emergency.

Ayer's
controls the spasmodic efforts of coughing, relieves the congestion in the throat, quiets the inflammation in the bronchial tubes, and prevents the lungs from becoming involved. There are many substitutes and imitations. Be sure you get Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It contains no narcotic or poison of any kind. Put up in large and small bottles.

KLUEGEL LEAVES TO TAKE NEW JOB

Many friends of Charles H. Kluegel will regret to hear that he is to leave the Department of Public Works. He was in charge of the department during the absence of Superintendent Campbell, and has proved himself a very capable executive. Mr. Kluegel has accepted a position as engineer in charge of the new extension of the Hilo railroad to Hahala.

Considerable surprise has been expressed relative to Mr. Kluegel leaving the department, for it was thought he would take charge of the construction of the Kula pipe line after the organization of the Department of Public Works, the Survey and Land Departments. Mr. Kluegel will assume his new position at once. He was formerly employed by the Oahu Railway and Land Company, also the Hilo Railway Company, and has had wide experience in the class of work he will take up with the railroad company.

ROBBER RAFFLES A POST OFFICE

For the second time in a year and a half, the Wahiawa postoffice suffered robbery Friday, the robber escaping this time, whereas last time he had his career cut short with a bullet upon emerging. The robber took the contents of the cash drawer after prying open the window with a "blimpy" but scorned the stamps as things liable to get him into trouble. The robbery was discovered by Karsten Chott, the clerk, the next morning, who reported it to Postmaster L. G. Kellogg.

Nearly 6000 bags of Grove Farm and Mananala sugar were brought in yesterday on the steamer W. G. Hall. Purser Chaney reports rough weather on the homeward trip.
